

Silver Cross EMS System EMD CE September 2014 Study Guide on Pediatric Emergencies

1. List the pediatric airway differences and respiratory considerations.
2. What are the 3 components of the Pediatric Assessment Triangle?
3. Appearance is an indicator of which 3 body systems?
4. What caller responses would be concerning, based on the PAT?
5. What type of fevers are more concerning?
6. What position do we put the child's airway in, when doing the head – tilt, chin – lift?
7. How deep do you compress the child's chest, during CPR?

8. An infant is what age group?

9. List 3 signs of a severe airway obstruction:

10. List the steps to help a conscious choking child:

11. List the steps to help a conscious choking infant:

12. What is the ratio of compressions to breaths for an unconscious choking child or infant?
What step do you need to add when they are choking?

13. What kinds of issues can cause Altered Mental Status in a child?

14. Define asthma:

15. Compare the differences between croup and epiglottitis:

16. Define stridor:

17. List sign and symptoms of respiratory failure in children:

18. What is the primary cause of cardiac arrest in pediatric patients?

19. What are 3 causes of seizures in children?

20. What are the signs and symptoms of appendicitis?

21. What is the #1 killer of pediatric age group?

22. What 3 things are injury patterns directly related to?

23. Where could you get help after a distressing call?