

Silver Cross EMSS November EMD CE 2012 Burns

1. What is the outermost layer of skin?
2. What layer of the skin do you find sweat glands?
3. What are the functions of the skin?
4. Name the types of Burns:
5. What are the causes of burns?
6. What are some concerns with Electrical Burns?
7. What is the system used to calculate the amount of body surface area burned?
8. What % of BSA is given to the palm of a patient's hand?
9. A patient's burns are described as red and blistering on the front of both legs. Name the type and % of BSA of this burn.
10. What is the treatment for the above burn?

11. Name the indications of airway/respiratory burns.

12. What is the concern with facial/airway burns?

13. Describe the treatment steps for a chemical burn?

14. Name some complicating factors for burn patients.

15. What are critical burns?

16. Describe Severe, Moderate and Minor burns:

17. How does the Rule of 9's differ for children?

What topics would you be interested in for the 2013 EMD CE?
Email Rhonda with your suggestions: emsjunkie1@aol.com.
Happy Holidays!