

SCEMSS EMD CE MAY 2013 TRAUMATIC INJURIES

1. Define wound.
2. Name and describe the types of closed wounds.
3. Name and describe the types of open wounds.
4. Name 2 functions of the skin that are lost when there is an open wound.
5. Names the layers of the skin.
6. What layer of the skin contains the nerve endings?
7. How do we treat impaled objects?
8. What's the most common type of open wound?
9. Describe the care for an amputated part.
10. List the general wound care considerations.

11. What should you do if bleeding soaks through the dressing materials?

12. Describe what each type of burn looks like.

13. What is the method used for figuring out the body surface area that's been burned?

14. Describe the treatment for chemical burns.

15. Name the types of musculoskeletal injuries that were covered in the presentation.

16. What are the functions of the skeletal system?

17. What's the difference between tendons and ligaments?

18. What is the difference between a fracture and a dislocation?

19. List the treatment for musculoskeletal injuries.

20. What is the general treatment for traumatic injuries.